THE MANAGER AND HIS STAFF

Hank Bauer Number 9

Hank Bauer was promoted from the playing ranks to manager of the Kansas City Athletics on June 19, 1961. He thus became the fifth manager of the A's in the club's seven year history in Kansas City. The elevation of Bauer to the position of manager brought to an end the playing career of one of baseball's most respected players and one of its fiercest competitors. Bauer began his baseball career with Oskosh in 1941. He first donned a major league uniform in 1948, when he was called up to the New York Yankees. He remained with the Yankees until he was traded to the Kansas City Athletics in December of 1959. Bauer makes his home in Prairie Village, a suburb of Kansas City, with his wife and four children.

COACHES

Dario Lodigiani Number 40

Dario Lodigiani will be starting his second year as an A's coach and infield instructor. He began his baseball career in 1935 with Oakland. He spent six years in the major leagues dividing his time between the Philadelphia Athletics and the Chicago White Sox. He was manager of Yakima from 1952 to 1954, and from 1954 to 1961 he scouted for the Cleveland Indians. Lodigiani makes his home in San Francisco, California with his wife and one child.

Ed Lopat Number 37

Ed Lopat will be starting his first season as the A's pitching coach. Lopat, one of baseball's great lefthanders, won 116 games and lost 112 in his twelve year major league career with the White Sox, Yankees, and Orioles. He managed Richmond from 1956 to 1959. In 1959 he became a scout for the New York Yankees, and in 1960 was named pitching coach of the Bombers. Last year he served as the pitching coach of the Minnesota Twins. Lopat makes his home in Hillsdale, New Jersey with his wife and two children.

Gus Niarhos Number 42

Gus Niarhos, absent from the baseball scene the past few years, will begin his first season as the A's bullpen coach. Niarhos is an eight year major league veteran having seen action with the Yankees, White Sox, Red Sox, and Phillies. Niarhos makes his home in Phoenixville, Pennsylvania with his wife and one child.

Jo Jo White Number 41

Jo Jo White will be returning for his second season as an A's coach and outfield instructor. White started his baseball career in 1928 with Carrollton. He played with the Detroit Tigers, the Philadelphia Athletics, and closed out his major league career with the Cincinnati Reds. Jo Jo spent 10 years as a minor league manager and served as a scout and coach with the Cleveland Indians before joining the Athletics. White makes his home in Sacramento, California with his wife and son.
